

PRESS RELEASE

Hi-Fi & Home Entertainment Show

September 23th2005

Tradition now holds that all hi-fi aficionados flock to London in September to attend the annual Hi-Fi & Home Entertainment Show. For more than a decade, the exhibition has demonstrated brand new product innovations of the acoustic market and hi-fi components.

This season, London saw the greatly anticipated Italian company Bolzano Villettri exhibit two of their finest top end loudspeakers: the «Citta' Ideale» (Hi-End) and the «Campanile» (Hi-Fi), a stunning masterpiece of loudspeaker engineering.

Be amazed by the pure essence of Bolzano Villettri loudspeakers, a true joy to the senses due to the overwhelming aesthetic pleasure: solid dimensions, nimble lines, perfectly balanced proportions and beautiful finishes.

The «Citta' Ideale» series, includes two floorstanding speakers the Laurana and Studiolo, and the center channel Veduta, these are unprecedented loudspeakers with exceptional performance. The Hi-Fi speakers consist of the Torre, Piazzetta, and Cantoria, however do not yield to Hi-End.

Boasting a full range of new patented technology, the loudspeakers have no resonance distortion; possessing increased accuracy and stability of the sound stream; and a remarkable purity due to the distribution of sound in space. Consequently the systems provide an amazing volumetric, transparent and uniformed sound - that truly sets the BV series apart from all other brands.

Multifunctional for home cinema and stereo mode, allowing everyone to experience a totally new generation of high-end audio devices – not only sturdy, yet modest in appearance but also provocative in its simplicity. Be tempted...TOUCH THE SOUND...